Part 1. Declaration of Candidacy for Congressional District & State Delegate/Alternate The filing period closes February 21, 2018, 5:00 pm

Name (as it will appear on convention ballot): _____
Street: _____ City: _____
Zip: _____ Phone: _____ - _____ - _____ Precinct: _____
Email address (required): _____ Filing for: _____

By submitting the above data, I declare my candidacy for Delegate or Alternate to represent the Chisago County Republican Party at the Eighth Congressional District Conventions and State Party Conventions for the next two years. I understand there will not be any nominations for Delegate or Alternate from the floor of the County Party Convention.

County conventions: March 1, 2018. CD8 Convention: Park Rapids, May 5, your cost: at least $200.
State Convention: Duluth, June 1-2, 2018, your cost: at least $200 for registration, travel, hotel, meals.

Part 2. Expectations of District and State Delegates and Alternates

The Chisago County GOP is dependent on Delegates and Alternates working to elect Republicans. Delegates and Alternates should be involved locally, regionally and financially.

- Local expectation: Delegates and Alternates must actively serve on one of the seven standing committees of the County Party (Constitution, ARTICLE 5, Section 9, A 1) or equivalent work.
Committees: Candidate Development Precinct Networking Events
Technology Public Relations Research Elections
- Regional expectation: Delegates should attend conventions. Alternates should be prepared to attend District and State conventions. It is the Party's goal to have 100% representation at all conventions.
- Financial expectation: support the local Party by selling 2 Reagan Day Dinner tickets (you don't have to buy tickets).

Signature: _____ (typing your name is an electronic signature).

Please note: you may be a candidate for Delegate or Alternate even if you do not sign to agree to Part 2. However, prior to the election at convention, the Applicant Filing Committee is charged by the Constitution to report to the convention the names of candidates who have and have not accepted in writing the duties and responsibilities of being a Delegate or Alternate.

Part 3. Return this completed form by February 21, 2018, 5:00 p.m. Filing earlier is better.
