Part 2. Expectations of State Central Delegates and Alternates

The Chisago County GOP is dependent on Delegates and Alternates working to elect Republicans. Delegates and Alternates should be involved locally, regionally and financially.

- Local expectation: Delegates and Alternates must serve on one of the standing committees of the County Party (Constitution, ARTICLE 5, Section 9, A 1) or equivalent work. Committees are:
 Candidate  Convention  Elections  Fundraising  Public Relations
- Regional expectation: State Central Dels & Alts attend two state-wide meetings annually.
- Financial expectation: Support the County Party's financial goals and fundraising activities

Please note: you may be a candidate even if you do not sign to agree to Part 2. However, prior to the election at convention, the Applicant Filing Committee is charged by the Constitution to report to the convention the names of candidates who have or have not accepted in writing the duties and responsibilities of being a Delegate or Alternate.
