Part 2. Expectations of State Central and District Delegates and Alternates

The Chisago County GOP is dependent on Delegates and Alternates working to elect Republicans. Delegates and Alternates should be involved locally, regionally and financially.

1. Local expectation: Delegates and Alternates must serve on one of the standing committees of the County Party or do equivalent work (Constitution, ARTICLE 5, Section 9, A 1). Committees are:
 Events Research Elections Precinct networking Public Relations
 Candidate Development Technology Equivalent work
2. Regional expectation: State Central Delegates and Alternates attend two state-wide meetings annually and Executive Committee meetings.
District Delegates and Alternates attend one Congressional District Convention.
3. Financial expectation: Support the County Party's financial goals and fundraising activities.

Signature: /s/ _____ (typing your name is an electronic signature).

By signing, I agree to the above if elected.

Please note: you may be a candidate even if you do not agree to Part 2. However, prior to the election at convention, the Applicant Filing Committee is charged by the Constitution to report the names of candidates who have or have not accepted in writing the duties and responsibilities of being a Delegate or Alternate.

Part 3. I would like to use the contact information of the Precinct Delegates and Alternates to campaign for the above listed position(s). This requires being vetted and signing the List Use Agreement. Yes No

If you plan to campaign, file well before the deadline.
