2. The permanent roll of the Convention shall be constituted as follows:

5. Only persons whose names are entitled to be entered upon the permanent roll of this Convention shall be permitted to vote.

- c. Literature that is distributed without the disclaimer shall be collected from convention attendees and discarded.
10. All persons asking a question, speaking to an issue, submitting a motion or seconding a motion must rise and identify themselves by name and precinct (at a microphone if provided). Debate upon any motion or subject shall be limited to one minute by each speaker. A person shall not be allowed to speak more than twice upon the same motion or issue.  - b. A roll-call vote by precinct shall be taken if requested by seven (7) or more precincts.
 - c. A secret ballot may be moved by any delegate, seconded and voted up or down.
12. If there is a dispute about the vote of any precinct, the Chair shall appoint a Judge and two (2) Tellers to canvass the vote of that precinct and the Judge shall report the same to the Chair.
13. No one shall be compelled to vote on any question or motion under unit rule.
14. All motions, except such as relate directly to the order of business, shall be in writing and referred to the proper committee, without debate, and reported on by it before the same shall be considered on the floor.
15. Methods of voting for endorsement.
 - a. A candidate may be endorsed by a two-thirds (2/3) voice vote in an uncontested race.
 - b. In contested cases, voting for candidates shall proceed by secret ballot.
 - i. As the first choice, the secret ballot shall be cast electronically. If electronic voting is not available, paper ballots shall be prepared.
 - (1) When voting by paper ballot and there are two candidates, a voter shall write one candidate's name legibly on a supplied blank ballot.
 - (2) When voting by paper ballot and there are three or more candidates, the names of the candidates shall be printed in alphabetical order. Following the names, the printed ballot shall include the options of "no preference," "undecided," and "no endorsement."

- (3) When voting is by electronic ballot and there are two or more candidates, the names of the candidates shall be arranged in alphabetical order and the electronic ballot created. Following the names, the electronic ballot shall include the options of “no preference,” “undecided,” and “no endorsement.”
- (4) Blank ballots, abstentions, unreadable ballots, ballots cast for an ineligible person or fictional person and ballots with too many votes shall be regarded as spoiled and not counted.
- (5) If a voter inadvertently hits the “Cast Ballot” button, a request can be made to the Head Teller to recast the electronic vote.

ii. Each candidate is encouraged to appoint one (1) designee to observe the counting of ballots.

16. Endorsement of a Candidate for State Representative.

- a. Pursuant to the Constitution, it shall be determined by majority vote if the Convention chooses to endorse a candidate for State Representative.
- b. Pursuant to the Constitution, each person seeking endorsement for the office of State Representative must meet with the Candidate Interview Committee (CIC).
- c. If not already declared, a person seeking endorsement for the office of State Representative must declare their candidacy to the CIC Chair immediately after these rules are adopted. The CIC will convene immediately to meet with that person.
- d. The CIC issues its report whether the candidate may or may not be considered for nomination at the Convention. A minority report of the CIC may be presented if one-third of the members concur. By accepting the report, the Convention places into nomination for endorsement the names of the candidates who are set forth in the report as qualified. The nomination of each of the candidates is then seconded by persons of each candidate's choosing.
- e. Each candidate shall then be allowed to address the Convention. Seconding and candidate speeches combined may be up to ten (10) minutes total for each candidate. When uncontested, the candidate's nomination is seconded by CIC. The candidate may then address the Convention for up to five (5) minutes.
- f. Any candidate seeking endorsement for the office of State Representative who receives less than fifteen percent (15%) of the vote shall not be listed on any subsequent ballot.

- g. During the Convention, the CIC will convene from time to time for the purpose of receiving written questions from delegates and seated alternates pursuant to rule 16(i). Thereafter, the CIC shall adjourn.
 - h. After the first ballot, each candidate who has not been eliminated shall be given an additional two (2) minutes to speak to the Convention.
 - i. After subsequent ballots, the Chair of the Convention shall pose two (2) to three (3) questions to remaining candidates who will be allowed up to two (2) minutes to respond to each question. The CIC shall prepare these questions. Delegates and seated alternates may also submit questions in writing to the CIC prior to or during the Convention. The CIC may clarify these questions and shall submit these to the Chair of the Convention. The Chair may choose which questions to use or modify a question before posing it to the candidates. After each round of speeches or responses to questions, balloting for endorsement shall continue.
 - j. A candidate shall be endorsed by receiving the vote of sixty percent (60%) or more of the delegates and seated alternates as established by the last credentials report prior to voting.
 - k. Following recognition by the Chair of the Convention, a candidate may at anytime address the Convention for the purpose of withdrawing his or her name from consideration for endorsement. Such speech shall not exceed two (2) minutes.
 - l. Once balloting starts in a contested case, a motion for no endorsement or adjournment shall not be in order until after six (6) ballots have been cast without an endorsement.
17. These rules shall not be amended nor suspended except by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Endorsing Convention.

Note: The Rules Committee encourages delegates and seated alternates not to make a motion to "call the question," which would stop debate if approved, but often only results in delaying the business of the Convention.
